(Kateri Circle)

"The beginning is purification, that's the first step. And purification means purification of body and mind. You don't purify the body without cleansing the mind; that's the way it works."

--Rolling Thunder, CHEROKEE

If we have bad thoughts or poison in our minds, they will eventually show up in our bodies in the form of headaches, pains, and stomach problems. It works this way because we are interconnected. Our minds and our bodies are one system. So when we start to grow, or commit to the Red Road, we need to start cleaning up our thoughts and start showing respect for our bodies. We start purifying our minds by prayer and meditation, and we start cleansing our bodies by getting the right amount of sleep and developing good eating habits. Today, I'm going to observe my thoughts. Will my thoughts be clean today?

Great Spirit, let me focus on Your love today so my mind will be pure

Seasonal Natural Resource jobs

The Tribal Natural Resources Department has announced that once again, seasonal positions with the department will be available. This popular program has helped a number of students and has been a great assist to our NR Department as they work on their projects.

The seasonal positions will be to assist the fisheries and aquatic biologists with projects such as fishery population monitoring, sturgeon work and stream restoration research including wild rice planning. These positions will include extensive fieldwork, equipment upkeep, stream electrofishing, sturgeon collection and rearing, macroinvertebrate sampling and data analysis. This position requires flexibility in scheduling including late nights and weekends.

Qualifications for the positions include:

Required:

- *A minimum of enrollment in BS degree in Biology (or related field)
- * Knowledge of fisheries and other aquatic sampling techniques
- *Electrofishing, telemetry, water sampling
- *Valid driver license throughout employment as needed

Preferred:

- *Two years experience in biological sampling techniques
- *Macroinvertebrate Identification

The positions will start in early May and continue through August. If you are interested please send your resume to LRBOI Human Resources, 375 River St. Manistee, MI 49660 and indicate that you are interested in temporary work in the Natural Resources Department. For more information, contact the Natural Resources office toll-free at 1.866.723.1594 or within the Manistee area at 723.1594.

NEW RENTAL HOMES AVAILABLE SOON

The Little River Band of Ottawa Indians Housing Department is pleased to announce that we will have five new 3-bedroom homes available soon for rent at Aki Maadiziwin in Manistee. These are newly constructed single family homes with all new appliances (including washer/dryer, microwave), attached garages and full basements.

These homes are available for low-income families. To be considered "low-income" your annual gross household income cannot exceed the amounts listed below.

Family Size	1	2	3	4
Income	$35,850	$40,950	$46,100	$51,200
	5	6
	$55,300	$59,400

Monthly rental payments will be 20% of the household's adjusted monthly income plus utilities.

Copies of the Regulations governing eligibility and occupancy may be obtained from the Housing Department or the tribal web site.

If you are interested in applying for a rental unit, please call the Housing Department Toll Free at 1.888.723.8288 or direct 231.398.6876.

Building Security

The Bank Building (Tribal Government Headquarters) has now had card access equipment installed at all of the main entries. Non-government employees and visitors need to check in at the front desk (River Street entrance) before going upstairs. This is a safety feature that will let emergency personnel know who is in the building for evacuation purposes. Similar procedures are planned for the other government offices.

American Indian Journalism Institute

The Annual AIJI at the University of South Dakota is June 16-25, 2010. Applications for this internship are being taken through March 19th. Please see the announcement below. Over the years, several LRBOI students have taken this popular program. If you have interest in journalism, this is a wonderful opportunity. Please go open this .pdf for details:

Multimedia Training, Credits Available to College Students
February 17, 2010

By Reznat

VERMILLION, S.D. — The Freedom Forum is accepting applications for the annual American Indian Journalism Institute. It will be held June 16-25, 2010, at the University of South Dakota.

Selected students attend AIJI for free and receive other financial assistance. They will become eligible for college credit by taking a multimedia journalism course taught at the Freedom Forum's Al Neuharth Media Center on the University of South Dakota's Vermillion campus.

Graduates will contend for six-week paid internships as reporters, copy editors, photographers and multimedia journalists in daily newsrooms and with the Associated Press beginning about July 1.

The Freedom Forum administers and funds AIJI, including tuition, fees, books, room and board. To be eligible, students must have completed at least one year of college and have a passion for journalism.

Program graduates will earn three hours of college credit from the University of South Dakota that they may transfer to their current school. Many AIJI graduates have become contributors to Reznatnews.org.

Jack Marsh, AIJI founding director and Freedom Forum vice president for diversity programs, said, "Having even one Native American working in a newsroom makes the organization more aware of American Indians in its community, and more sensitive and intelligent in reporting stories about them."

AIJI is part of the Freedom Forum's commitment to diversify employment in daily newsrooms.

The application deadline is March 19.

Instructions and application forms are available at www.freedomforumdiversity.org or by e-mailing Janine Harris at jharris@freedomforum.org.
